Look To This Day

For It Is Life

The Very Life Of Life

In Its Brief Course

Lie All The Verities

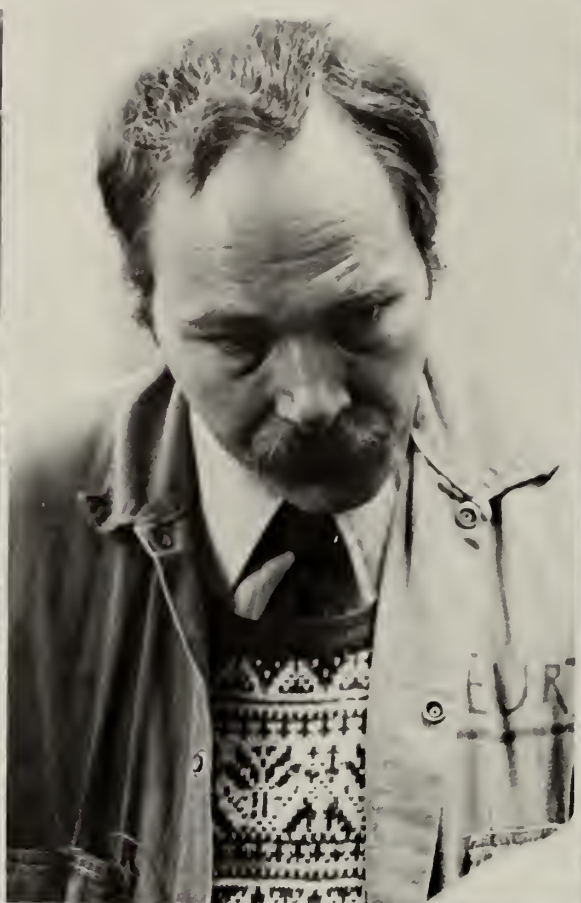

And Realities Of Your Existence

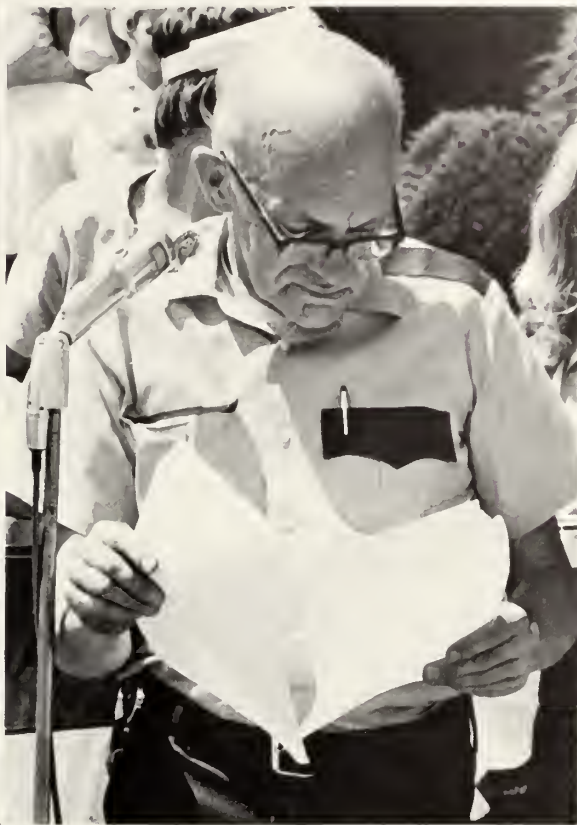

The Glory Of Action

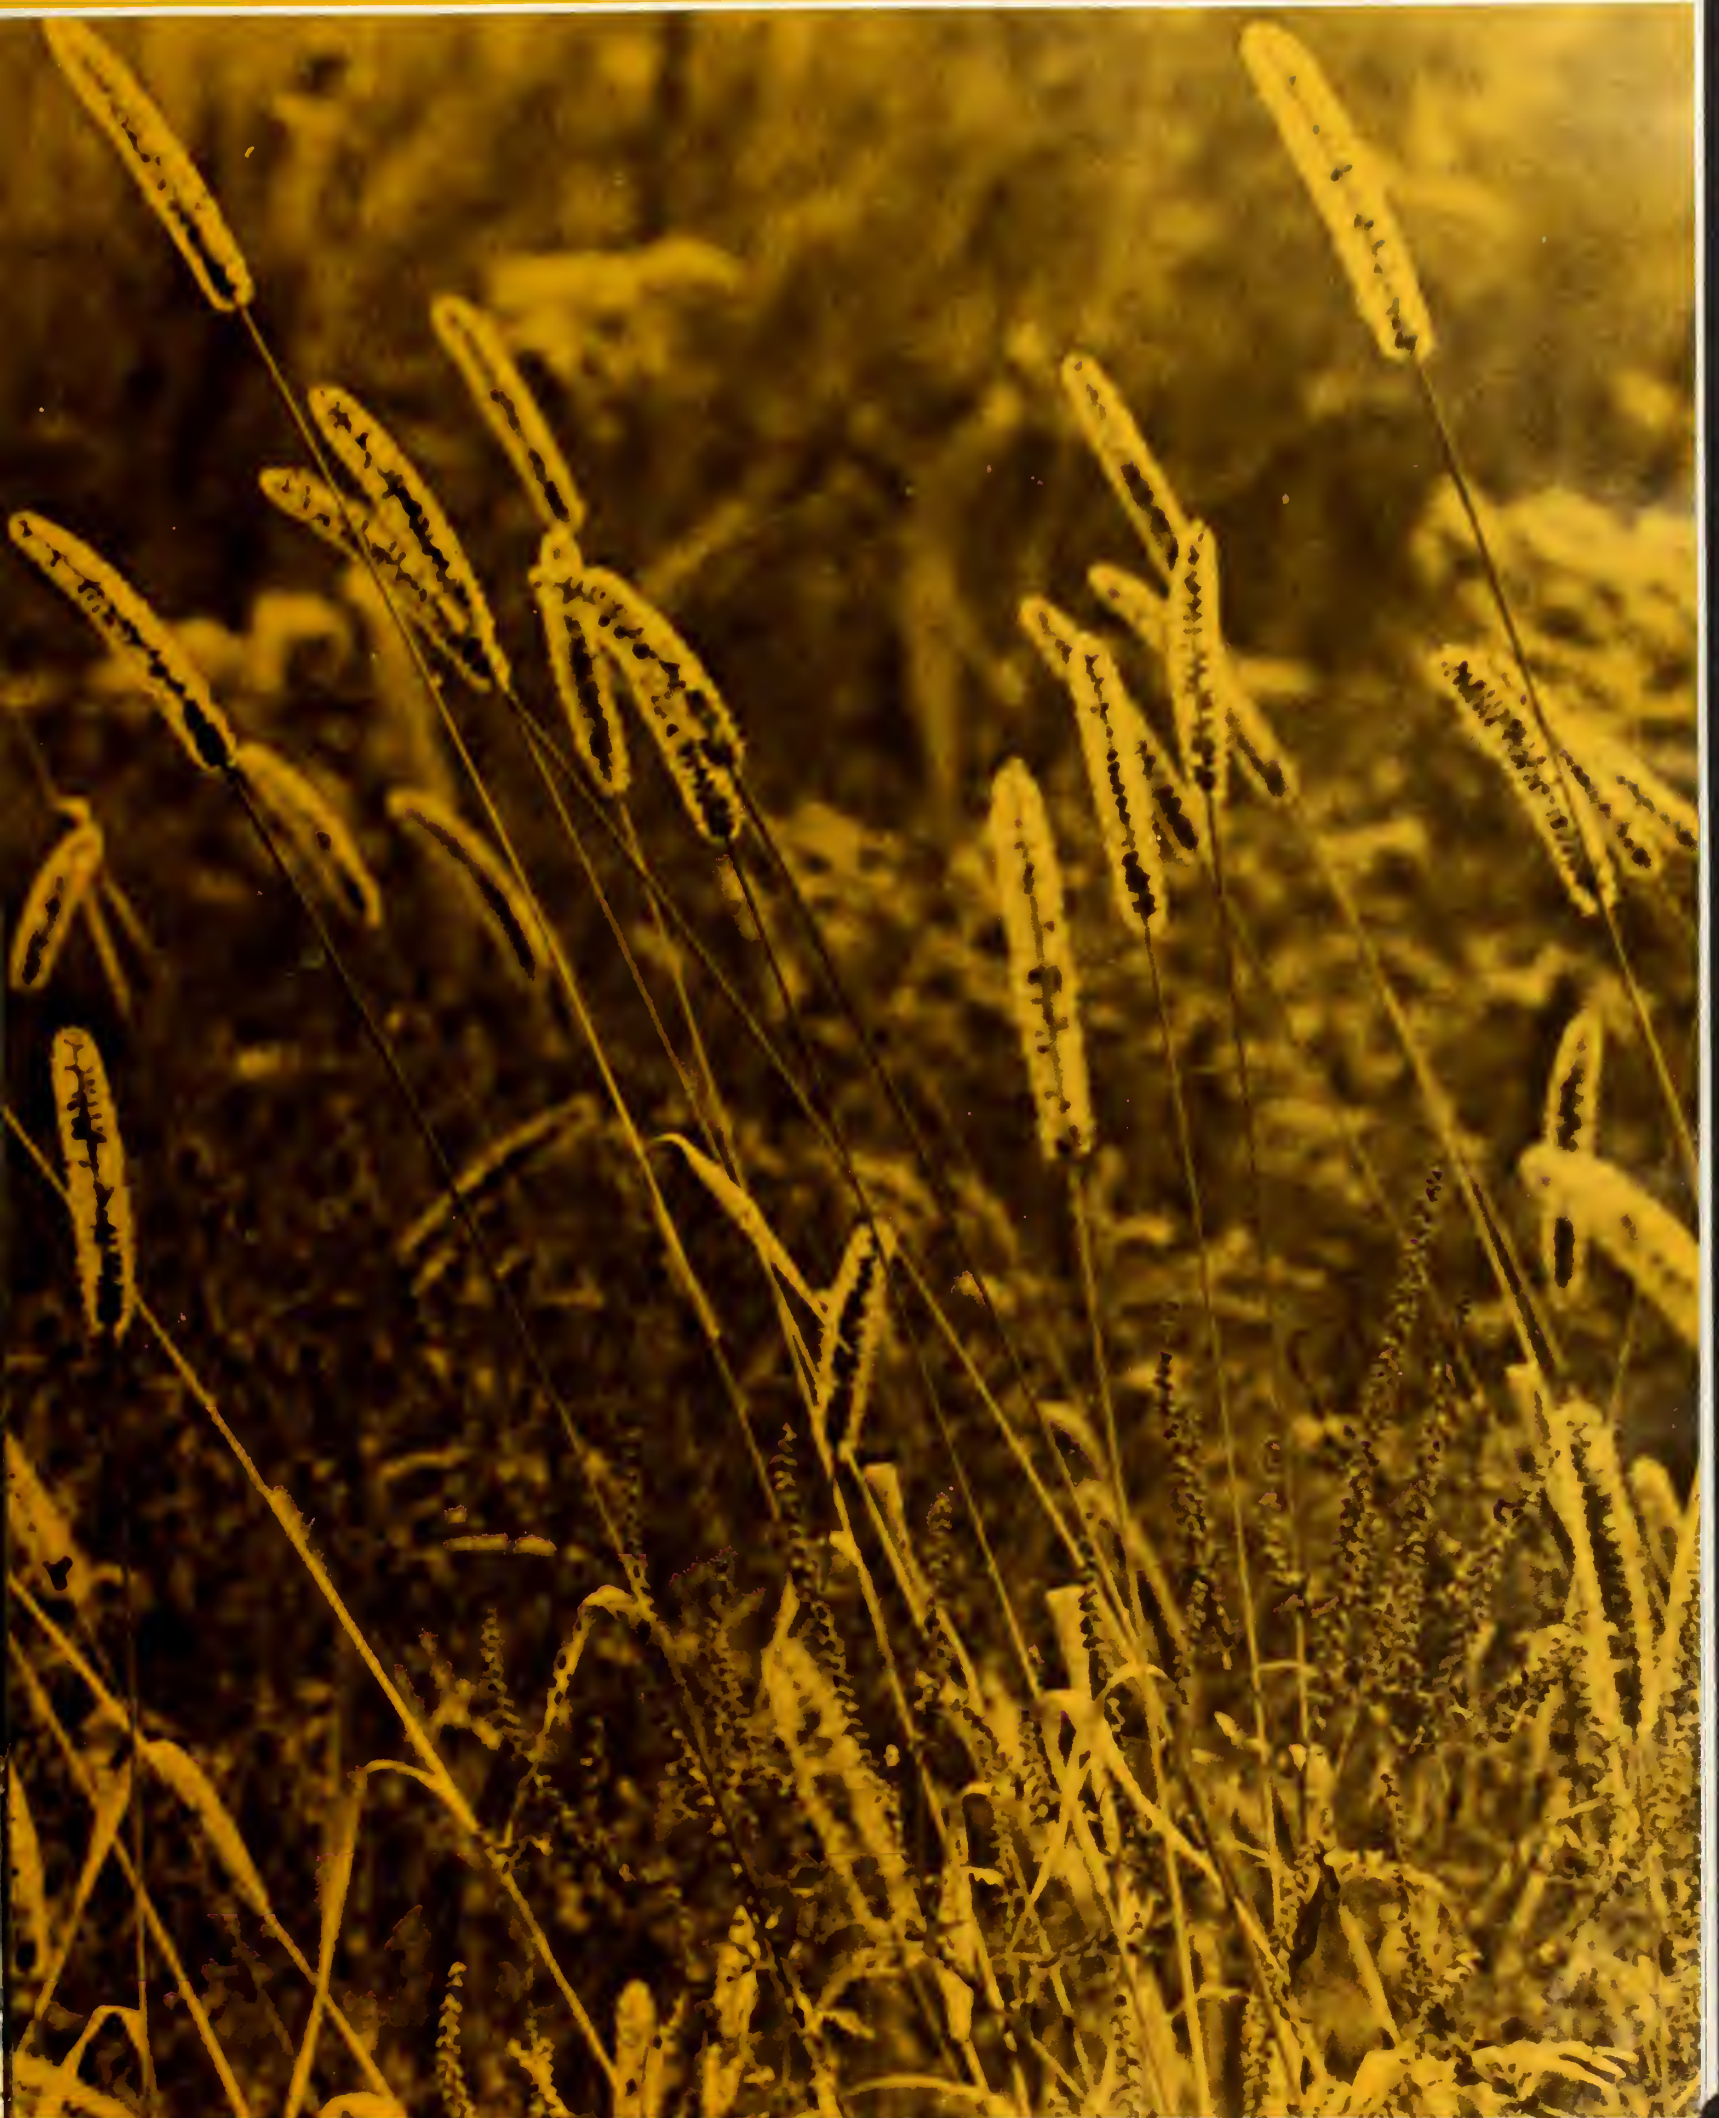

The Bliss Of Growth

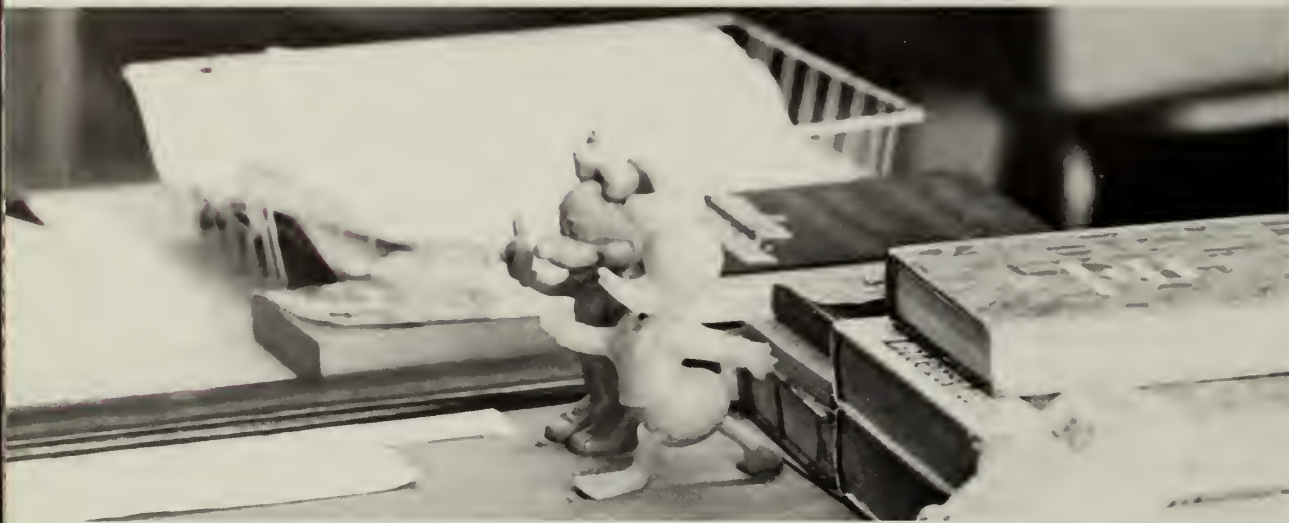

The Splendor Of Beauty

For Yesterday Is Already A Dream

And Tomorrow Is Only A Vision

But Today Well Lived

Makes

Every

Yesterday

Happiness

Dream Of

A

And Every Tomorrow

A Vision Of Hope

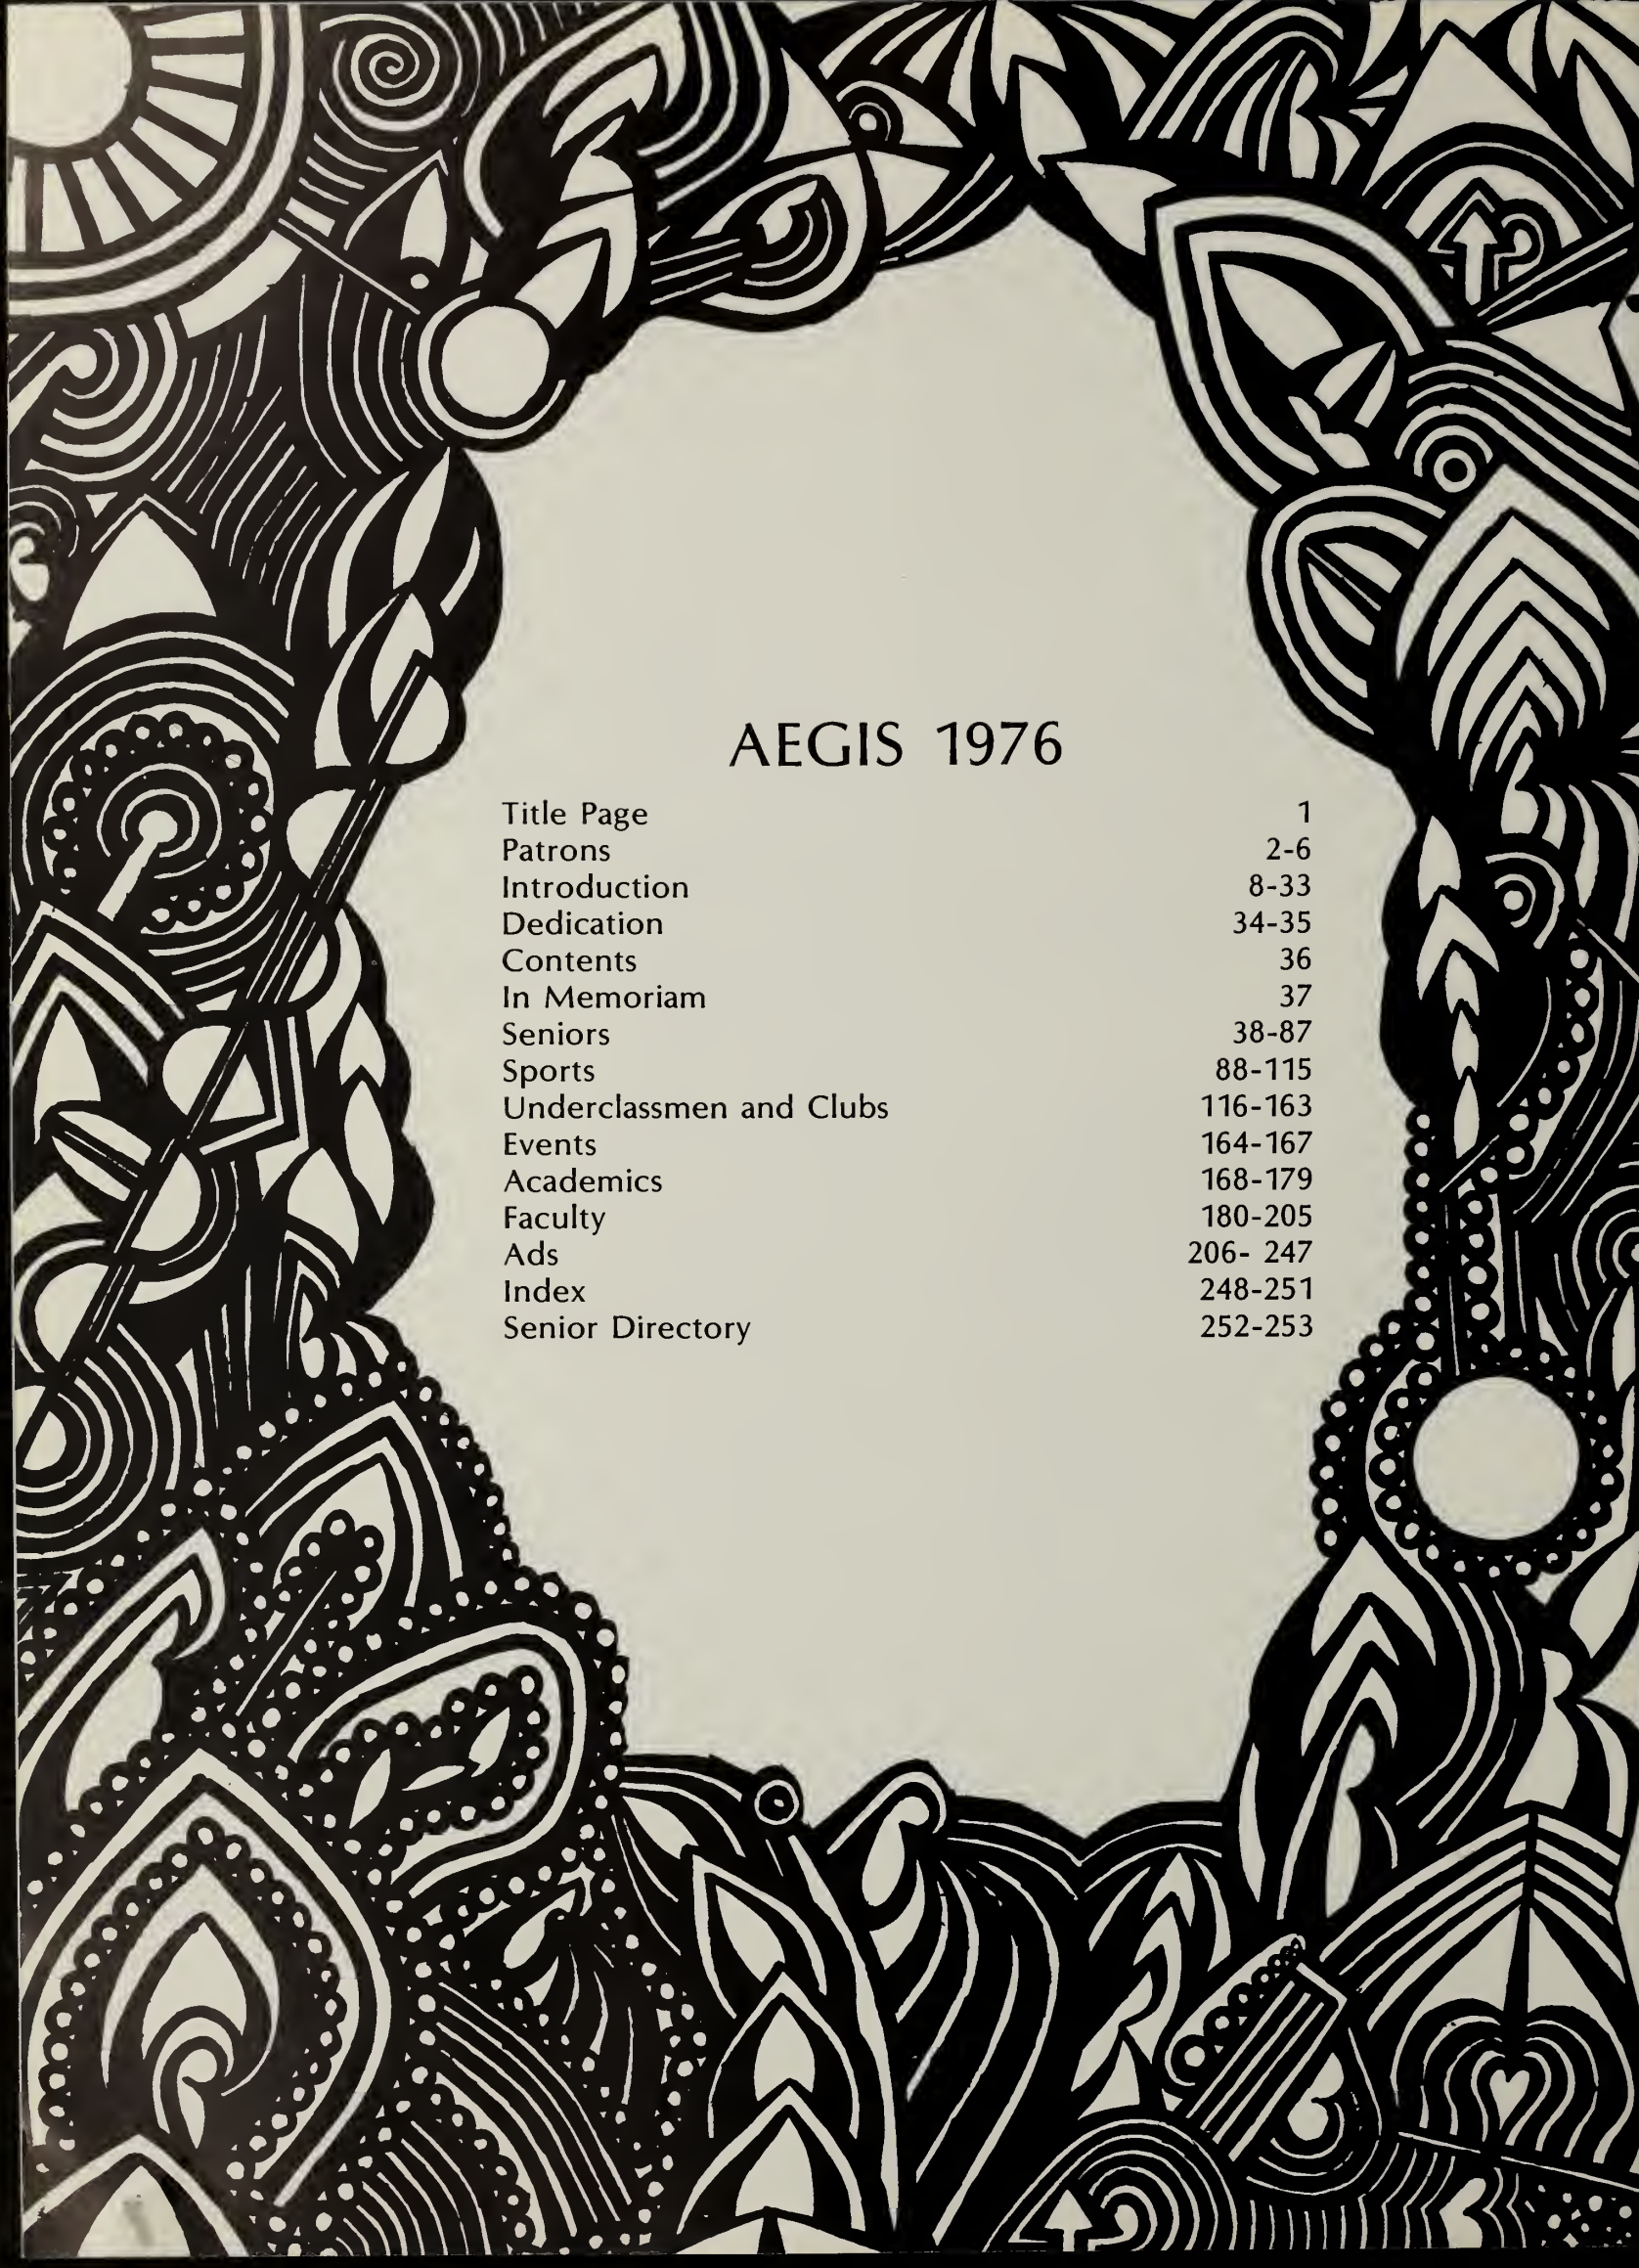

You taught us through your vast knowledge of American and English literature, and brightened the days by your easygoing style and wit in the classroom. You won our admiration by being everwilling to help a student in need, and to fight for the betterment of the educational process at E.L.H.S. The excellent production of the early seventies, "Mame", "The Impossible Years", "Fiddler On the Roof", and "The Sound of Music", entertained packed auditoriums, and gave witness to your outstanding work with the Drama Club. You have been sadly missed since ill health forced you to leave E.L.H.S. in the fall of 1975.

It is impossible to estimate the number of those who have benefited from your unselfish dedication to the students of E.L.H.S. The class of 1976 can surely speak for those who preceded it in expressing their deep gratitude to you for your loyal service. We wish you the best of health, and fondly dedicate Aegis 1976 to you, Mrs. Dorothy Allard.

In Memoriam

To Terry

And even as the shadows fly,
The sand runs.
Its passage may be soft and gentle,
Or be as sharp as thunder,
But always, it runs out.
When a friend's time has elapsed
And her life has ebbed away,
Just a silhouette of pleasant memories remain
To carry us through difficult days,
As the moist sand endures the wear, when the waves recede.
We try to understand this inevitable cycle
Which like the frothy ocean waves,
Overcomes us as we play in its shadow,
Shattering our dreams,
Awakening us to reality.
We fail: still we face death, mystified.
We try to find peace.
Knowing she has found a peace,
As everlasting as the constant tide.

M.R.

Terry Ryan

Cross Country Treks Through 5-5 Season

The season started off well for the Spartan Striders, but a series of bad breaks and foul luck caused the team to earn a deceiving 5-5 tally. The Minnechaug meet, where Larry Keating was injured, and the Amherst meet where the course was fouled up and then rerun, are prime examples of the problems and difficulties which caused potential champions to settle for a mediocre season.

"Take your mark — go"

"Don't look now, hut ..."

James Skiffington runs with Spartan endurance.

In the competitive Fay-Wright Division, the Spartans eyed a play-off spot. Injuries to Paul Serafin and Peter Beaulieu, hampered the team from having an outstanding season. Senior Paul O'Melia and juniors Tony Trase and Mark Lorenzi finished in the top ten scorers of the league. Although it will be losing five outstanding seniors, the Spartan squad promises to be strong next year, under the auspices of Coach McCullough.

A warning to all area wrestling teams: the EL Spartans are for real and they are here to stay! This year's team posted an outstanding 6-2 record; a mark that is enviable throughout the league. The performance of the main stay of the team, the underclassmen, has brought a smile to the face of Coach Mazzariello. The efforts of freshmen Tom Cunningham, Bill Messier, Steve Whitney, Jim Brunton, and Vinnie Zuccala, coupled with the mat finesse of the returning sophomores and juniors bring the promise of several more successful seasons and probable championships.

Bill Messier prepares to tangle with opponent.

"Unhand me, you fool!"

Tom Daudelin racks up the points.

Ann Chipouras was an efficient announcer at the swim meets.

If you can dream — and not make dreams your master;
If you can think — and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the words you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings:
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings — nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And — which is more — you'll be a Man, my son!

Thinkers Get A Piece Of The π

STANDING: Michael Franceschelli, Don McNeish, Eric Day, SEATED: Mark Rutherford, Steve Sunter, Tracy Plass, Brian Day, Kristin Dietsche, Michael Miller.

Each and every Tuesday, the numerical elves of E.L.H.S. meet with their wizard, Mr. Burns. Whether it is the routine squaring of roots or the working of the Pythagorean Theorem, the "Thinkers" always rise to the occasion. These rigorous workouts have produced a team that is fifth among its fourteen peers.

Maryellen Viger, Carla Moses, Sue Schaeffer, Cheryl Nay, Nancy O'Neill, Vicki Giuggio, Kathy Ferreira, latest victim, Michael Broderick.

Red Cross, the angels of mercy from E.L.H.S., played a significant role in helping several institutions of the area. Our faithful nurses have, unknown to the public, spent countless hours practicing on mock victims wherever they found them. Rumor has it that they are ready and waiting for the real thing.

Denials, embezzlements, and CIA disclosures, highlighted the year for the Junior Class Officers. A cafeteria-style assassination attempt on President Patrick Fleming's life was aborted when quick-thinking agents wrestled Lynette (Squeaky) Siesta to the floor.

Student Government, Fails The Watergate Test

Break-ins, buggings, and absconding of funds proved these young legislators are indeed a model of their parent bogglers in Washington. The alleged break-in of the office of Mrs. Munzert, party secretary, was followed by a call for impeachment of ailing Premier R.G. Hamel. Student agitators insured lunacy would prevail at each meeting. President Moose Millhouse Nixon denied any role in the whole messy affair and the ensuing cover up, but was deported to San Demente following the discovery of a slushy fund of $12.98 allegedly embezzled from the brownie booth at the bake sale. They tried.

A new Western Mass. diving record and a giant step by Chicopee Comprehensive toward the Division B title were among the highlights Tuesday in high school swimming.

Chipouras, a senior who last year won the WM and state board titles, totalled 305.35 points against Minnechaug to lead East Longmeadow to a 51-32 victory.

EL took seven of the 11 events, with Minnechaug's Scott Semle the only double winner — taking the 200 individual medley and the 100 butterfly.

The "Other" Room

These are the people who scurry around during X-blocks beating on underclassmen to get the money to pay for this book. They also drive around town getting patrons and ads for the same purpose. They are unsung heros of the Yearbook. So we just want to say "THANKS" for all the work they have done in making this yearbook possible.

(A) On December 18, Student Government sponsored guest speaker Michael Merropol. Michael and his brother Robert are the sons of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg. They are co-authors of the recently published book "We Are Your Sons." Merropol! spoke to a packed auditorium during x-block, and answered student's questions afterward.

In 1950, Ethel and Julius Rosenberg lived with their two sons on New York's Lower East Side. The boys visited their father's machine shop on Houston Street, rode subways to the Bronx Zoo, were avid Brooklyn Dodger fans. Abruptly one day their life together dissolved — Julius was imprisoned, then Ethel, accused of "The Crime of the Century" they were ultimately sent to the electric chair; their sons were shunted between reluctant relatives and children's shelters. Eventually they were adopted and protected from the public eye.

Here for the first time the sons tell their own story, weaving the nightmare events of 1950-1954 — trial, appeals, execution of their parents and court battles over guardianship — with many of the letters Ethel and Julius wrote while in prison. In this correspondence, much of it previously unpublished, are the concerns, emotions and politics of the Rosenbergs as they sought to calm their children and themselves while the United States government warned, "Talk or Die!"

The sons also discuss their adoptive parents, Anne and Abel Meeropol, who provided them with security and emotional stability. And they talk about their own growth in the politically turbulent 1960s.

They remain convinced of their parents' innocence and present arguments and evidence — some of it never before published — supporting their claims. This book is a vital social document, told simply yet intensely, persuasively. It is a book the reader will not be able to ignore. (Courtesy of Wendell Minor; WE ARE YOUR SONS)

Artists Move Into New Home

Under the direction of Miss Exley and Mr. Goldie, the Art Department has settled into new quarters. Courses are progressive, with all students required to take a general art course before branching out to a specific area. At the end of the year, art projects are sold in the courtyard when a variety of masterpieces may be had for a mere pittance. Whether you are a novice finger painter or an experienced sculptor, there is something for you in the Art Department.

Logic — It's Not a Matter of Common Sense

Mr. Burns points out the way.

The zany tactics of Mr. Burns enable the logic students to be logical. His premise is that people are not, so he tries to guide students in normal governed patterns of reasoning so they can quickly perceive answers to mental problems.

Remember, to be happy is to be logical, ask any computer.

Mark Buddington finds logic illogical.

Psychology Delivers Levelheaded Message

A lot more than the study of mental processes go on within the hallowed walls of room 117. The numerous "value" days and rewarding discussions have helped to shape the minds of many an avid participant, and enabled countless students to re-evaluate their outlooks on life.

Mediator, Mr. Marden, has successfully developed a give-and-take flow of ideas that make "Psychology" one of the most sought after courses within the school.

Discussing Issues, Strengthening Values, Expanding New Horizons — All A Part Of Humanities

Topics for discussion are explored in the pamphlet "moral reasoning".

Talking over a topic is Dean Edson, Bill Hafey, Dan Blaise, and Mike Tilden

Humanities offers an interesting alternative to the standard course. Lectures deal with anthropology, psychology, and sociology. Mr. Vickers has traveled extensively, and his insights into American culture provide a background for the course. Pamphlets, magazines, and books provide topics of interest for discussions. Ranging from the abstract to current social issues and contemporary legal questions, the discussions move rapidly with Mr. Vickers injecting ideas of his own, and making sure "things don't get off the topic."

Bill Hafey keeps things alive.

Sue Mumford, Trish Davidson, Jill Driscoll, Cathy Hood, and Linda Johnson enjoy a discussion.

Never at a loss for words, Mr. Vickers' ideas frequently arouse controversy among his students.

Human Physiology Covers It All

Mr. Sullivan "whistles while he works."

Under the instruction of Mr. Sullivan (and his faithful overhead), students learn the ins and outs of the human body.

The "Human Fizz" book.

Home Economics — They're Cooking with Gas

As you stroll through the halls near Room 103, you're probably lured to the door by smells of lasagne, fresh bread, or burnt apple crisp. Further investigation into this room would show future homemakers and determined bachelor's hard at work baking goodies for fellow students waiting eagerly in their next classes.

Plop! Plop! Fizz! Fizz! Oh, what a relief it is!

Debates, Demonstrations, And Speeches

All A Part Of Public Speaking

Tim Murphy lets the speaker know that "time's up".

At the start of this course, many Public Speaking students are fearful of delivering speeches. Under the watchful eyes of Mr. Irwin Kerson, these students debate, give demonstrations and deliver numerous speeches. When the course is over, the "Colonel's" students have overcome their fears and are masters of writing and oration.

Mr. Kerson raises a question following a debate.

Paul O'Melia finds a bright spot in a class.

Profit — No Loss

The paraphernalia in Room 110, from 10-key adding machines to printing calculators, provides skill and experience in a miniature business world for those students who have determined to find their goals in commerce. Under the guidance of Mr. St. Germain, Mr. Cooley, Miss Golash, Miss Herschuk, Mrs. Redler, and Mrs. Simanski, the Business Department has had continuous success in turning out top rate office personnel.

Mrs. Megliola Holds Scroll For Miss Fay

Through the efforts of Mrs. Megliola, the Latin language has found its place in ELHS once again. Her unfailing encouragement and patience has helped to guide her students through the tenses of Latin and to provide an understanding and appreciation of all languages.

The schools of any community reflect the perception and concern of the citizens for the future of their children. The elected officials on the School Board and their selected administrators of the East Longmeadow schools have conscientiously striven to provide a program of studies designed to accomodate the needs of the town's youth. The culminating years of the educative experience in the East Longmeadow High School offers varied and challenging invitations to the student who wishes to find success in his personal life style. We extend our congratulations and sincere thanks to the entire administration for their solicitious leadership.

Cooks And Custodians Keep Up The Good Work

Cooks

The recollection of these twelve masters of the culinary art will live in the memories of our digestive systems for many years. For thirty-five cents, we got quite a variety. We feel that they deserve to be commended for the job they've done, in spite of a lack of money and some student appreciation.

Custodians

These men, along with the other custodians, fight a never ending battle against school pollution and environmental refuse. Under the efficient leadership of Mr. Reed, the crew maintains East Longmeadow High School for peak productivity. We appreciate the many hours put in to keep our school tidy.

Well, Aegis 1976 is all done, but we'll never forget when, (L-R) Sue giggled, Kris drove little cars, Billy checked in, Carol phoned, Sue and Steve dried off, Mary-Anne disappeared during X-blocks, Betsy got the ad, Jeff wore funny sneakers, Mike hobbled around, Chris flew south, Chet and Ted made Friendly Franks, Martagne charged the munchies.....
